

Fundamentalism: in the age of Reason

3rd Meeting of the Literary Circle

Dr Humeira Iqtidar is a well known scholar from the University of Cambridge. She is also a Research Fellow at King's College, Cambridge. Dr. Iqtidar has numerous publications on religion, politics and education and has delivered many lectures on a variety of topics in many countries. She has kindly accepted our invitation to speak on the burning issue of fundamentalism at our Literary Circle meeting. Please come along to get benefit from this rare opportunity.

The idea behind the Literary Circle meetings is to promote dialogue among the community members and to develop a community based Think Tank. All the participants are encouraged to contribute towards the discussion. It could be just a question, a comment or answer to a question.

Date and Time

15th March 2009 (3:45pm to 6:00pm)

Venue

Arbury Community Centre, Campkin Road, Cambridge CB4 3LD

Booking

- The meeting is open to anyone interested. There is no need for formal invitation. Just turn up on the day. However, if you let us know in advance, it will help us in arranging refreshments.
- The meeting is open to both male and female but due to the nature of the meeting children under 13 are not allowed.
- Further information can be obtained from Dr Rizwan Hasan on 01954-212440 or by email at LiteraryCircle@pakcam.com

Programme

- 15:45 Reception and drinks
16:00 Introduction Dr Rizwan Hasan
16:05 Fundamentalism (in the age of Reason) Dr Humeira Iqtidar
17:20 Discovering Islam Dr Mahmood Shafi
17:30 Allama Iqbal's message Dr Hammad Akbar
17:35 Suggested topics for the future meetings
17:40 Tea and refreshments

Literary Circle, Cambridge Pakistan Cultural Association

185 The Sycamores, Milton, Cambridge CB24 6ZH 07801556127 www.pakcam.com